

1. Did the course meet your expectations? Why or Why not?
I was not sure what to expect so I am not sure that I can really answer that. I can say that the course was informative and that I feel like I am more prepared to enter law school than I was.
2. Was the course presented well? Were the ideas discussed in the chatroom, course text, and transcript notes well-organized and conveyed clearly?
I thought that the ideas and layout of the course were presented as clearly as the format would allow. The flow was not the best but that was more a limitation of the chat than the course itself.
3. Were the assignments beneficial to the learning process? Why or why not?
The assignments were the learning process. I think that the way the assignments are scheduled made it an easy to follow, step-by-step process.
4. What did you like most about the course? What did you like least?
I really enjoyed the case study and analysis. I really enjoyed everything about the class. The only drawback is the chat format makes the interaction a little choppy.
5. Would this course be something you would recommend to a friend considering law school? Why or Why not? (Please be as honest possible, I will not take any of your comments personally.)
I know that I feel more prepared to go into the first day of class with confidence. I would recommend this class to someone who wants to get some small idea of what the next 3-4 years are going to be all about.
