

gmcelveen6496 [ at ] charter.net

1. Did the course meet your expectations? Why or Why not?

Yes, covered as much as I expected and Prof. good

2. Was the course presented well? Were the ideas discussed in the chatroom, course text, and transcript notes well organized and conveyed clearly?

Well- organized

3. Were the assignments beneficial to the learning process? Why or why not?

Yes, They were able to show me the teaching in action and how much I need practice.

4. What did you like most about the course? What did you like least?

Prof. and assignments. Least...speed of the class on-line

5. What did the professor do well? What could the professor have done better?

Answered questions well. Not a thing.

6. Is this course something you would recommend to a friend considering law school? Why or Why not? (Please be as honest possible, I will not take any of your comments personally.)

Yes, a great prep. Course for the learning curve of law school and the exposure to legal terms prior to starting law school.